This administration, although receiving its orders directly from the State Ministry for State Security (SfS), was officially subordinated to the HVDGP. The FK Main Administration, details on the organization of which were not known, supervised the political indoctrination of all East German border police units. The Main Administration for Training exercises central control over all schools of the border police.
The motor pool of the HVDGP consisted of about 45 vehicles, including sedans truck 25	5X1
busses
a sedan of the SfS used as courier vehicle.
On 10 September 1953, Bereitschaften assigned to HVDGP were stationed at the following places:
a. Northern border (sea), Rostock, a special unit which comprised both land and sea forces.
b. Western border (D-line), Schoenberg, Grabow, Salzwedel, Gardelegen, Halberstadt, Nordhausen, Muchlhausen, Dermbach, Meiningen, Hildburghausen (prior to May 1953 in Wittenburg), Koeppelsdorf and Plauen.
c. Southern border (Czechoslovakia), Chemnitz, Ptrna.
d. Fastern border (Poland), Goerlitz, Frankfurt on the Oder River, Loechnitz.
e. Ring around Berlin, Plumberg, Blankenfelde, Gross-Glienicke.
